

Inheritance method that is neither preservation nor development

This year's theme

*"Think of ways to inherit local memories, culture, etc.
by means that are neither preservation nor development"*

Architecture Exhibition Vol.23

Japan-Korea Student Workshop Project [1st]

October 3 (Sun)

13: 00-14: 45 Shigenori Uoya Public Seminar

15: 00-16: 30 Explanation of this year's theme, presentation of target site, Q & A

Method: Remote method via the web (ZOOM)

Target audience: Japanese university students,
Korean university students, JIA members

General people who are interested in architecture and this project

Maximum number of participants: 100

* Priority will be given to those who have applied in advance.

Please note that if the number of participants exceeds 100, participation will not be possible.

Remarks: This project will be translated into Korean for international exchange projects.

(Please note that we do not translate into English)

Photo: "Sasanokurasha / Yohei Sasakura"

Seminar / Workshop Lecturer

2020 JIA Young Architect Award Shigenori Uoya

Shigenori Uoya Architects and Associates

1977 Born in Hyogo

2001 Graduated from Faculty of Engineering, Kyoto University

2003 Completed Graduate School of Engineering, Kyoto University

Present Condition Shigenori Uoya Architects and Associates representative

Kyoto Institute of Technology Specially Appointed Professor

Announcement

Japan-Korea Student Workshop Project [2st]

October 24th (Sun) 10: 00-16: 00: Interim Review

November 20th (Sat) 10: 00-17: 00: Final Review, Award Ceremony

Webinar method : ZOOM

Meeting ID : 841 2763 9634

Passcode : JIA1003

Free participation

<Inquiries> Secretariat
info@jia-kitafukuoka.org

Public Corporation The Japan Institute Of Architects
Kyushu Branch North Fukuoka Area Group
JIA International Support Activities Branch Grant Program
Town development research seminar secretariat